HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

Ecuador is bursting with contrasts, from the Andean foothills to one of the world's most celebrated wildlife-watching - the Galápagos Islands. You'll visit the UNESCO-listed Ecuadorian capital, Quito, hike through the waterfall splashed jungles of the Mindo Cloud Forest and drive down the Pan-American Highway to marvel at the snow-capped peak of Cotopaxi volcano. And on the Galápagos, you'll encounter incredible wildlife, including giant tortoise, great frigate birds, marine iguana, Galápagos penguin, and more.

WHAT YOU'LL LOVE

- Visiting the wildlife-rich Galápagos Islands
- Exploring the lava tunnels of Santa Cruz
- Swimming with turtles in Tortuga Bay
- Hiking through Cayambe Coca Eco Reserve
- Spotting exotic birds in Mindo Cloud Forest
- Taking part in community projects
- A more personalised experience thanks to small group sizes (maximum 16 people)

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Return flights from London Heathrow including baggage and transfers
- Guided walks and sightseeing with local leaders
- 12 nights' touring accommodation across Ecuador and the Galápagos
- 12 breakfasts, 3 lunches & 11 dinners
- All sightseeing and entrance fees (as per itinerary)
- All in-destination transport and internal flights

TRIP SUITABILITY

This holiday is graded Level 2.

City sightseeing and part-day walks of up to 9 miles with up to 1,000 feet of ascent. Walks in Cotopaxi are at an altitude of up to 13,600 feet (4,150m). Paths may be rough and uneven underfoot.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day – Quito

Welcome to Quito - the best-preserved historical city of the Americas, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and cultural capital of South America. And to top it off, it's located on the equator in the foothills of the Pichincha volcano. Depending on when you arrive, you can spend your day exploring the old town of Quito. Then in the evening, there'll be a welcome briefing at the hotel lobby to go through everything and help with anything you need.

Day 2: Galápagos Islands – Santa Cruz Tortoise Reserve

We'll fly to the island of Baltra, part of the Galápagos Islands, and transfer to Santa Cruz, a nearby island, by crossing the narrow Itabaca channel by ferry. We'll head into the highlands, home to the iconic giant Galápagos tortoises, where we'll have lunch at a private ranch before going in search of these famous residents. Along the way, you'll spot lava tubes, too. The evening's yours to enjoy at your leisure.

Day 3: Santa Cruz – Bay Tour – Tortuga Bay

Today's all about wildlife encounters as we firstly head for a boat ride to Academy Bay. You'll swim and snorkel with the exotic fish and sea lions that frolic in the waters and search out blue-footed boobies. Afterwards, we'll climb to a nearby viewpoint to see white-tipped reef sharks before walking along Playa de los Perros to spot the iguanas basking in the sun. We'll spend the afternoon at Tortuga Bay, a perfectly preserved beach where you're surrounded by turtles, crabs, and iguanas.

Day 4: Santa Cruz Charles Darwin Station – San Cristóbal

Spend the morning learning about conservation at the Charles Darwin Research Station and seeing the famous Lonesome George. Then in the afternoon we'll take a boat to the island of San Cristóbal where the rest of the evening's yours to enjoy as you wish.

Day 5: Isla Lobos - San Cristóbal – Tijereta Trail

A quick boat ride takes us to nearby Isla Lobos to see the wildlife that inhabits the island and surrounding waters including manta rays, sea lions, frigatebirds, and even sharks. Enjoy strolling along the white beaches of San Cristóbal before we return to Puerto Baquerizo Moreno. Then we'll head to Cerro Tijeretas to hike to the beautiful Playa Baquerizo beach, passing a hilltop viewpoint, the horseshoe-shaped Punta Carola beach, and Muelle Tijeretas on the way. We'll round off the day with a sunset cocktail at Playa Mann.

Day 6: Back to Quito

After breakfast – and one last photo of the sea lions - we'll fly back to Quito and transfer to our hotel.

Day 7: Cotopaxi National Park

Distance: 5 miles (around two hours on flat terrain). We'll drive south on the Pan-American Highway to the highest active volcano in the world, Cotopaxi. This snow-capped volcano is surrounded by the Cotopaxi National Park, home to abundant plant life and Inca ruins. We'll drive across the páramo to Limpiopungo Lake for short walk to birdwatch and admire the almost symmetrical cone of the Cotopaxi volcano.

Day 8: Quito – Middle of the World – Mindo Cloud Forest

We'll head north of Quito to visit the middle of the world - a mandatory stop once you're in Ecuador – where you're able to stand on both sides of the hemispheres at the same time. On our way, we'll stop for a view of the Pululahua crater, the third largest inhabited volcanic crater in the world. Then we'll reach Mindo, which is nestled in the cloud forest - a true birdwatcher's paradise. In the afternoon we'll visit a chocolate distributor to understand how they process cocoa, from harvesting the seed to the final product.

Day 9: Mindo Cloud Forest – Waterfall Hike

Explore the pristine cloud rainforest of Mindo, crossing by cable car and hiking along waterfalls surrounded toucans, hummingbirds, and other colourful birds. The afternoon's yours to enjoy some optional outdoor activities like whitewater rafting, tubing, or ziplining over the forest canopy. Then we'll make our way to the butterfly nursery to watch them emerge and land on your hand.

Day 10: Otavalo Market & Sacha Warmi Local Community Project

We'll drive back up into the highlands, heading north to the town of Otavalo. We'll visit Pijal, a small village in the heart of the Andes, to visit one of the sustainable projects called Sacha WarmiKuna (women from the mountain). You'll prepare 'Aji' (a local spicy salsa) together, have lunch, and learn more about the weaving process of their textiles. In the afternoon, you'll get to explore the handicraft market, full of textiles, alpaca throws and rugs, knitted clothing, paintings, ceramics, jewellery, and tapestries. Later we'll arrive at the historical hacienda of Cusin where we'll stay overnight.

Day 11: Cuicocha Crater Lake

Distance: 12.10km (around four to five hours). Our first stop today will be the Cuicocha crater lake in the Cotacachi Cayapas Ecological Reserve. We'll trek around this active volcano before taking a boat to the centre of the crater where you'll witness the forces at play beneath the surface.

Day 12: Agua y Vida Hike

Distance: 11.8km (around five to six hours) One hour from Quito, we'll be in amongst the Andean páramo surrounded by lagoons, waterfalls, and the most incredible views. We'll hike in the Cayambe Coca National Park to soak up every detail. Then at the end of the day, we'll check in to our hotel for a relaxing final night.

Day 13: Departure Day

Our tour finishes here and we bid farewell to our without flight guests. After breakfast, with-flight guests transfer to

Quito airport to begin our return journey back to the UK.

---

Day 14: Arrive UK

With flight guests arrive back in the UK

Hotel Fiesta, Santa Cruz (Galapagos)

The 3-star Hotel Fiesta puts you in a prime position for exploring the Galápagos Islands. Situated on the western side of Santa Cruz, this hotel is well placed for wildlife-watching boat trips around Academy Bay and up-close encounters with giant tortoise. Relaxing is easy here, too. There's a small pool surrounded by sun loungers, and a huge hot tub ideal for a post-adventure soak. Bright, fresh-faced rooms come with air-conditioning, TV, and Wi-Fi, and most look out onto the hotel's manicured gardens.

Hotel Blue Marlin, San Cristobal (Galapagos)

What's most pleasing about this small and friendly hotel is its standout location. You'll be in strolling distance of San Cristobal's biggest town, Puerto Baquerio Moreno, and its charming port. Back at base, a handful of rooms with simple but homely touches create a comfortable stay and centre around a small pool. As for facilities, there's a pint-sized bar area and a buffet where breakfast is served.

Septimo Paraiso, Mindo

A handful of jungle lodges hidden in the middle of the Mindo Cloud Forest, El Septimo Paraiso is a real away-from-it-all experience. Wake up to the sounds of wildlife in the trees with a stay in one of 23 comfortable cabins - all of which overlook the tropical scenery. Made from 100% ecological materials, rooms are decked out in dark-wood, bamboo furniture, and individual touches. Outside you'll find two pools surrounded by shade-giving trees, a safari-style bar, and an excellent restaurant serving both Ecuadorian and international cuisine.

Termas de Papallacta, Papallacta

You might find it tough to leave Termas Papallacta - even with a whole host of Ecuadorian adventures on your doorstep. This mountain spa hotel boasts an enviable location on the edge of the renowned Cayambe Coca Eco Reserve. Comfortable lodge-style rooms are kitted out in wooden furnishings and after a full day of exploring, you can enjoy a hot spring soak and hydrotherapy massage surrounded by knockout views of the Andean mountains.

Sheraton Hotel, Quito

Located in the bustling retail district of Ecuador's capital, Quito, this modern hotel sits in easy reach of the area's top attractions. Quito's UNESCO-listed old quarter is just a 12-minute taxi ride, or you can stick around to take advantage of the Sheraton's fully equipped gym and fitness centre. Spacious rooms are smartly decorated, and all come with TV and free Wi-Fi, and a selection have standout views over the city. The hotel has two excellent restaurants serving local dishes and international cuisine, plus a bakery that provides fresh bread and cakes.

Hacienda Cusin, Otavalo

Furnished with 17th century antiques, wall tapestries, and colourful tiles, this lavish 400-year-old Spanish estate ranks among the finest haciendas in Ecuador. Characterful rooms come with the feel of an authentic Spanish casa while hearty Ecuadorian cuisine is served in the candlelit dining room. Alongside five acres of beautifully landscaped gardens to explore and a host of activities on offer, the hotel also makes a great base from which to visit Otavalo's famous craft market.

Casa Opuntia, San Cristobal (Galapagos) 18-October Group only

Conveniently located on the seafront promenade of the stunning Playa de Oro beach, this boutique hotel combines modern comforts and natural beauty. After a day of incredible wildlife watching adventures, freshen up with a swim in the outdoor pool and unwind in elegantly designed rooms with ocean views. One of the hotel's star attractions is the garden restaurant where guests can dine on delicious local cuisine whilst overlooking the bay. (18 October departures only)

Hotel Galapagos Planet, San Cristobal (March 2026)

The Galapagos Planet Hotel offers a charming experience with warm hospitality in a prime location in San Cristóbal, just 120 metres from the area's scenic boardwalk and 200 metres from the beach. The hotel features a restaurant, terrace, garden and the 24 hour reception offers complimentary tea & coffee and a water refilling station. Cozy air-conditioned rooms feature a TV and fridge.

Vaccinations & health information for Ecuador & Galapagos

This information is subject to change. In all cases, we highly recommend you consult your GP both for up to date details and for more information on what is appropriate to your situation. As a rule, travellers should be up to date with their routine vaccinations and boosters as recommended in the UK - including, for example, the MMR and diphtheria, tetanus, polio vaccines. It is recommended for most travellers to have: Hepatitis A Tetanus vaccinations. Some travellers may require: Hepatitis B Rabies Typhoid Tuberculosis/TB Yellow Fever If you will be arriving into Ecuador from a country with endemic Yellow Fever you will need to provide a Yellow Fever certificate. If you have recently travelled to a country with Yellow Fever - including Brazil, Democratic Republic of Congo and Uganda - you must be vaccinated at least 10 days prior to entering Ecuador and you must always carry an International Yellow Fever Vaccination card. Requirements can change, and we recommend you check in good time ahead of your holiday. On mainland Ecuador there is a low risk of malaria; the recommendation is to be aware of the risk and prevent/avoid bites. There is no risk of malaria in the Galápagos Islands. Parts of Ecuador (including Quito at 2,800m) are at high altitude. Discuss the health risks associated with travelling to high altitude and how this relates to your health specifically with your GP before you travel. The Travel Health Pro website has a factsheet with more information and advice on how to reduce the risk of altitude sickness and recognise symptoms. The Ecuadorian Ministry of Tourism requires all travellers to the Galápagos to provide the following mandatory information before travelling to the islands: Pre-existing medical conditions and/or allergies Emergency contact information Medical/travel insurance information Advance Passenger Information This information will be collected on the holiday; your local guide(s) will advise you further. Please note: the use or possession of some common prescription or over-the-counter medicines is banned in some countries. If you will be carrying medication, please check with the country's embassy/consulate prior to travel. As an extra precaution, it is recommended to: Keep medication in its original packet Take a copy of your prescription If possible, ask your chemist to write the name of your medication in the language of the country you're visiting For further information on country specific advice, visit www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk or www.traveldoctor.co.uk
