HOLIDAY OVERVIEW

All sparkling lochs, spectacular Munros, and ancient oak woodland, Scotland's oldest national park is a showcase of highland scenery at its breathtaking best. Explore Loch Lomond and The Trossachs on a five-night adventure that includes walks along the West Highland Way, a boat trip to the island of Inchcailloch, and a chance to bag Ben Lomond – Scotland's most southerly Munro. What's more, the park's National Nature Reserve status means you're in with a chance of spotting red squirrels, osprey, Scottish red deer, and rare ptarmigan along the way.
